

Heaven Horoscopes For Real People On Earth

by Amy Herring

The way newspaper horoscopes are calculated is a lot more "one size fits all" than a reading of personal birth chart, but they can be worth reading! To use these horoscopes effectively, consider the horoscope for your rising sign in addition to your sun sign.

★ Aries

Sometimes we feel on top of the world and sometimes it feels like it's on top of us. External rewards and recognition seem out of your reach, but the deeper question is Why do you want them? If your heart is in your work, recognition is just gravy. If your heart is not in your work, the lure of high status may be an ultimately disillusioning substitution for real joy.

★ Taurus

The term "significant other" can imply one's sweetheart, but consider a broader definition. This month brings excitement and creative communication through encounters with people from any and every direction. Even if we only meet them for a brief time, someone can change our lives forever, and that's a pretty significant other.

★ Gemini

Who is the most powerful person in your life? If it's you, great! You will find out why that is and what you're made of. If it's not you, you are going to be face-to-face with who is. Resist the urge to hide in old patterns of fear, because this month is about taking the reigns and making decisions based on your authentic self.

★ Cancer

In the fable of the Emperor's New Clothes, the Emperor is tricked into thinking he's wearing magic, invisible clothing when really he's just naked. A child dares to call attention to that truth. Sometimes cynicism is seeing and saying that the emperor is really naked. But sometimes cynicism keeps us from seeing the magic. "Balance, grasshopper..."

★ Leo

Take all the creative juice you can access and throw it into a meaningful project this month. You've been learning a lot about yourself this year and you've certainly changed. So let that reflect in your daily life and work now. Hard work and new goals that reflect the powerful self you've found are in order to warm up to the new year's bounty.

★ Virgo

The act of creation is the process of giving some piece or essence of yourself an external form. The most powerful and moving creations hold a piece of their creator. If you are trying to make or do or say or write or be something with only your audience in mind, it can only be a guessing game. But if you offer the truest piece of yourself that you can, the magic can't help but do its job. Share yourself and it feeds us all.

★ Libra

A child's Christmas Eve anticipation is pure, but we have learned to be more "realistic" in our expectations. How much can we really expect out of one day, a few presents and a mess of colored paper? If that's really all it is, we really can't expect much at all. But if we allow ourselves to surrender to the magic of a moment instead of above it, removed from it, the smile never leaves our face. Sometimes it's not what you can do, but what you let happen that makes all the difference.

★ Scorpio

Truth is for sale everywhere you turn: religions and television commercials promise to make it all mean something if you just give them your soul or your money. This month brings home most powerfully the realization that you already have the truth. Your gut instincts and life experience are far more valuable than you may ever realize. Lead with them.

★ Sagittarius

"If you think you can or you think you can't, you're right." Take a moment this month to truly contemplate what that means. Do you believe you can? Then let me invoke a more pertinent phrase: "put your money where your mouth is." The only thing that can stop you this month is your fear. Make it happen.

★ Capricorn

You can do anything you set your mind to, but what if it's time to change your aim? Our beliefs and desires change and mature, and we must adjust with them. All the willpower, self-reliance and diligence in the world will not serve you in the end if you push that rock up the wrong hill. Just take a moment this month to catch up to yourself. Rock is made of earth, it is patient. It will wait.

★ Aquarius

The lesson of Aquarius is to develop our individuality. Too bad everyone gets in the way! The pressure cooker of peer soup sometimes help us develop a richer self than we might be able to on our own. Accept the challenge to truly engage with others this month and you will find some of your richest gifts of self to offer.

★ Pisces

It's easy to let your real values get lost when others are celebrating and supporting you for what they think you should stand for. Sometimes we're halfway down a path before we realize we are going the wrong way. Your inner voice is loud; you just need to go to a quiet place to hear it. Do that and you will know what you really want.
