

Five Things To Look For In Your Lover's Face

The Wisdom of Your Face is based on the same ancient principles as traditional Chinese Medicine. The Chinese believed that your face is a reflection of your true inner spirit, the blueprint of your original design. The wisdom written there explains why you think, feel, and behave as you do, and can help you find the life path that brings you joy, relationships that nurture you, and most of all, gain a way to feel true compassion for yourself and everyone you encounter.

If you have questions for Jean about your own face or those in your life, please send them to Krysta@newspiritjournal.com or mail them to New Spirit Journal, 14911 Chain Lake Rd., #431, Monroe, WA 98272.

"Dear Jean,
What can I look for in my lover's face?"

Jean's reply:

"Face reading can be so useful in romance! You can't single out one feature on your lover's face and know all about who he or she is, of course. Instead, it's seeing how the features together reveal the choreography of that person's unique inner dance. But there are certainly details you can observe on someone's face that can help you with important aspects of your relationship.

I often have couples in my workshops or private consultations, curious about how face reading can help improve their relationship.

Sometimes they're fearful I'm going to tell them to split up. But the first thing to understand is that there are no bad combinations. All relationships can be successful; it's a matter of awareness and understanding. So in this light, let me share with you some insights you may get from the face of the one you adore.

Eyebrows: Full, thick eyebrows indicate someone who loves to be active both in work and play. He's confident and assertive, but also has more potential for anger and frustration than other people. He not only won't back down from an argument, he may actually enjoy a good "discussion."

If your boyfriend has these kind of strong eyebrows but yours are distinctively thin or sparse, it can mean that you may feel less confident overall in life, or can sometimes experience his behavior as too impulsive or pushy. You may be uncomfortable with a disagreement while he may seem to be energized by what he considers a good fight.

The Wisdom Of Your Face

by Jean Haner

It can be so valuable to stay aware that this is a different approach to things, rather than one person being right or wrong. Each person is being exactly right, for themselves. This outlook can give you both a spacious new view of each other, and can create new ways of influenced by what others say.

If your lover has a narrow jaw and yours is wide, she may criticize you for being too rigid in your beliefs. You may perceive her as waffling too often, or wonder why she can't just make a decision and stick with it. Again, your faces can help you understand why this reaction is happening, and with this understanding, not get lost in judgment of each other.

Mouth: If your girlfriend has a large mouth or very full lips, this reveals her generous nature, and the fact that relationships are very important to her; possibly too much so at times. If you have a small to average size mouth, you may at times perceive her as needy, demanding or overly involved in the lives of her friends or family.

If, however, she has a very small mouth, she may feel less need for as many friendships or this level of closeness. She may sometimes struggle with feeling she lacks a safe foundation within relationship, or even overall in life somehow.

These are two extreme examples: a very large or very small mouth. Both show potential difficulty in relationship, but for very different reasons. This doesn't mean you can't have success together. In fact, as with all your features, knowing what your mouths reveal about your
