FENG SHUI SPIRITUAL RESPONSE THERAPY

Lesley Yates
Alphega Living Concepts

Combining Traditional Scientific Feng Shui with Spiritual Response Therapy to shift people's lives and spaces congruent with who they are and achieve their goals for health & wellbeing. Lesley works with architects on new construction, homes and businesses, specializing in relationships and compatibility. Using a Chinese lapan compass and ancient calculations, internal and external remedies are used to correct the nature of the building energy and neutralize negative influences. Your most supportive sleeping directions and productive energy areas are identified to improve health and relationships. The system of Spiritual Response Therapy channels and dissipates the negative energy within a building and between the occupants, clearing toxic streams and openings in the aura, spiritually correcting disturbances affecting harmony and abundance. Lesley also holds workshops in the local area, for more information please visit the website
